Nili – Once again, just to emphasize the point, we have no money in the bank yet from Nigeria. We will check first thing Monday morning. Meanwhile, below are the specific details of the potential invitation, including a time frame for the event.

Event Date: Thursday, December 10, 2015

Honorarium and Travel Expenses: $125,000, which is INCLUSIVE of the cost of airfare. As you know, this means that the cost of airfare will be deducted from the gross fee, and we would take our commission on the lesser number. In addition, the host will provide first class hotel accommodations for two (2), including a one-bedroom suite and one standard room, ground transportation in Lagos, meals, and incidentals for two (2).

Agenda:
4:00PM – 9:00PM: The agenda will include media interviews, a reception, a dinner, and Ehud's speech followed by a Q&A. Exact times are TBD.

Taping: This event will be taped, and highlight clips will be shown on Nigerian TV, including Arise TV. Any clips used would be pre-approved by Ehud.

Press: This event will be open to the news-media. As noted above, there will be media interviews at the event.

Sponsor Description: Leaders & Company will be sponsoring Ehud for the Access Bank Leadership Conference

In their own words, "Access Bank Plc, is a full service commercial bank operating through a network of over 310 branches and service outlets located in major centers across Nigeria, Sub Saharan Africa and the United Kingdom. Listed on the Nigerian Stock Exchange in 1998, the Bank serves its various markets through 5 business segments: Institutional, Commercial, Retail Banking, Transaction Services and Financial Markets.

The Bank has over 800,000 shareholders including several Nigerian and International Institutional Investors and has enjoyed what is arguably Africa's most successful banking growth trajectory in the last ten years ranking amongst Africa's top 15 banks by total assets and capital in 2011.

As part of its continued growth strategy, Access Bank is focused on mainstreaming sustainable business practices into its operations. The Bank strives to deliver sustainable economic growth that is profitable, environmentally responsible and socially relevant."

Nature of Event: Theme: Leading in a Transformational World – The Imperative of Innovation

They add, "The Access Conference addresses the issue of leadership from a holistic perspective, presenting outstanding success stories from a variety of internationally recognized speakers.

This year's conference will focus on the dimension of disruption and transformation, with a particular but not exclusive, focus on technology.

By now, it is patently obvious that leaders have to operate in a world that is quickly and radically changing on a global level. The growing complexity of today's borderless environment can sometimes appear overwhelming. More than ever, leaders have to make rapid decisions that are often dictated by the seismic shifts taking place in fields as diverse as economics, the environment, geopolitics, society, and technology. Technology is now the big elephant in the (board) room. No leader can afford to ignore its extraordinary, transformational, and very disruptive power.

Technology has and will continue to change the way we address our daily lives – for the better and potentially for the worse, the trend is inescapable. Today's technology has impacted many aspects of our private lives, as well as every single global industry – the obvious ones being financial services, retail, manufacturing, but also agriculture, accounting, law, education and so on. Innovation also disrupts the 'inner-life' of companies; including their organizational structures, jobs and the workplace, customer interactions and business models themselves. Life-changing innovations popping up in unexpected places around the globe with breakthrough developments in sectors such as nanotech, biotech, artificial intelligence, robotics and more, will affect every sector of the global economy."
